My husband Marvin Bowers has worked in the mine for 49 years paid dues hoping I would have a pension, after his death which was March 5, 2012. If I loose the pension I am getting, it would be very hard to pay bills and buy medicine which I have to have I'm 80 year old, no way I could work now days, Insurance is out of question for me. If Patriot Coal is allowed to take Bankruptcy out, many other women who lost their husbands in the same place as I am. We like to have the hearing in W. Va, which is should be. Thank you and hope you will allow it in
