8. The Debtors shall maintain a service list of all Core Parties and Non-ECF Service Parties (the “Service List”), which shall be updated monthly and posted on the Case Information Website and shall include names, addresses and facsimile numbers (but not email addresses) for the Core Parties and the Non-ECF Service Parties. A Court Paper shall be deemed served on all Core Parties and Non-ECF Service Parties if it is served on the parties on the most recent Service List that has been posted on the Case Information Website as of the day prior to the date of service.

Method of Serving Court Papers

9. Except with respect to (a) Core Parties, (b) Particularized Interest Parties and (c) Non-ECF Service Parties, all parties in interest, whether or not they have filed or file after the date hereof a notice of appearance or request for service of papers under Bankruptcy Rule 2002, shall be deemed to receive electronic notice through the ECF System of each Court Paper filed with the Court, effective as of the date such Court Paper is posted on the Court's ECF System and therefore, in accordance with General Order M-399, need not be separately served with such Court Paper.

10. Core Parties (and no other parties) shall be authorized to serve all Court Papers by email on each other Core Party (except for the Court and the U.S. Trustee), the Non-ECF Service Parties and any relevant Particularized Interest Parties. All other parties shall serve Court Papers in accordance with this Order, the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Bankruptcy Rules.

11. All Court Papers served by a Core Party by email shall include access to an attached file or files containing the entire Court Paper, including the proposed form of order and any exhibits and attachments, in PDF format. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a Court Paper cannot be annexed to an email (because of size, technical difficulties or otherwise), the serving party may, in its sole discretion, (a) serve the entire Court Paper by U.S. mail, hand delivery, overnight delivery or facsimile, including the proposed form of order and any exhibits, attachments and other relevant materials or (b) email a notice stating that the Court Paper cannot be attached but is available on the Court's ECF

System (and, if the Court Paper is being served by the Debtors, on the Case Information Website) and will be mailed only if requested by the party receiving the notice.

12. Service by email on a party shall be effective as of the date the Court Paper (or a notice stating that the Court Paper cannot be attached but is available on the Court's ECF System or the Case Information Website) is transmitted by email to the address provided by such party.

13. Upon the filing of any Court Paper, the filing party shall, in accordance with Local Bankruptcy Rule 9078-1, file with the Court either an affidavit of service or a certification of service (each, a "Proof of Service") annexing the list of parties that received notice. A Proof of Service shall indicate whether a party was served by email, but shall not include email addresses. Proofs of Service need not be served on any party.

14. Notice and service accomplished in accordance with the provisions set forth in the Case Management Order shall be deemed adequate in all respects pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Bankruptcy Rules and the General Orders of this Court.

ECF Service Exemption Requests

15. Any party in interest that does not have and cannot practicably obtain access to the Court's ECF System shall file with the Court a certification to that effect and a request to be exempted from electronic service through the ECF System (an "ECF Service Exemption Request"), which certification shall be served by such party in interest by U.S. mail, overnight delivery, hand delivery or facsimile to counsel to the Debtors, Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP, 450 Lexington Avenue, New York, NY 10017, Attn: Michelle M. McGreal.

16. An ECF Service Exemption Request shall include the following information: (a) the party's name and address, (b) the name of the party's client (unless the party is appearing solely on its own behalf), (c) an email address at which the requesting party can be served and (d) an address and facsimile number at which the requesting party may be served by U.S. mail, hand delivery, overnight delivery or facsimile. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rules 2002 and 9010(b), no ECF Service Exemption Request filed in these chapter 11 cases shall have any effect unless all of the foregoing requirements are satisfied.

17. Any individual or entity filing an ECF Service Exemption Request who does not maintain and cannot practicably obtain an email address must include in its ECF Service Exemption Request a certification stating the same. Notice will be provided to that individual or entity by U.S. mail, overnight delivery, hand delivery or facsimile, in the sole discretion of the serving party.

18. Any individual or entity who files an ECF Service Exemption Request but prefers not to include its email address in the publicly filed ECF Service Exemption Request shall (a) include in such ECF Service Exemption Request an explanation setting forth the reasons for not including an email address and (b) contemporaneously send a notice providing such individual or entity's email address to counsel to the Debtors, Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP, 450 Lexington Avenue, New York, New York 10017, Attn: Michelle M. McGreal.

Scheduling of Hearings and Deadlines for Filing Court Papers

19. The Debtors shall be authorized to schedule, in cooperation with the Court, periodic omnibus hearings (“Omnibus Hearings”) at which Motions and other requests for relief shall be heard. On the day before an Omnibus Hearing, the Debtors shall file with the Court a letter setting forth each matter to be heard at such hearing, which letter may be updated or amended from time to time thereafter to the extent necessary. The matters listed on the agenda letter shall be limited to matters of substance and shall not include administrative filings, such as notices of appearance and Proofs of Service.

20. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the following guidelines shall apply to all Omnibus Hearings:

(a) Motions shall not be considered by the Court unless filed and served in accordance with these Procedures at least 14 days before the next available Omnibus Hearing.

(b) Hearings in connection with claims objections and pre-trial conferences and trials related to adversary proceedings may be scheduled for dates other than the Omnibus Hearing dates. However, initial pre-trial conferences scheduled in connection with adversary proceedings shall be set on the next available Omnibus Hearing date that is at least 45 days after the filing of the complaint, except as otherwise ordered by the Court.

(c) Unless the Court directs otherwise, if a Court Paper purports to set a hearing date that is inconsistent with the Procedures, the hearing shall be scheduled, without the necessity of Court order, for the next available Omnibus Hearing in accordance with these Procedures, and the Debtors shall provide the movant with notice of these Procedures.

(d) Subject to Local Bankruptcy Rule 9077-1, if a movant or applicant other than the Debtors intends to seek emergency or expedited relief, the movant or applicant shall be required to first contact (i) the Debtors' attorneys and (ii) the attorneys for the Committee, by telephone to request that the motion or application be considered on an expedited basis. If the Debtors intend to seek emergency or expedited relief, they shall use reasonable efforts to notify the Committee in advance and to provide the Committee the maximum notice practicable. If the Debtors or the Committee disagree with the movant or applicant's request for emergency or expedited relief, the movant or applicant shall arrange for a chambers conference, telephonic or in-person, to be held among the Court, the Debtors' attorneys and the movant or applicant, to discuss the request. If the Court determines expedited consideration is appropriate, the Court shall direct the requisite notice and shall set a hearing date and time. On the hearing date, the Court shall first consider the propriety of emergency relief, whether adequate notice has been given and whether there has been adequate opportunity for parties to be heard.

21. The deadline to file an Objection (the "Objection Deadline") to any Motion other than a Motion seeking relief from the automatic stay filed by a party other than the Debtors shall be (a) the earlier of (i) the date that is 10 days after the date such Motion is filed on the Court's ECF System and (ii) the date that is seven days before the date of the hearing of such Motion or (b) any date otherwise ordered by the Court. The Objection Deadline may be extended with the consent of the movant or applicant. No Objection shall be considered timely unless filed with the Court and served on or before the applicable Objection Deadline. All parties filing an Objection shall include their telephone and facsimile numbers in the signature block on the last page of the Objection.

22. A Motion may be granted without a hearing, provided that, after the passage of the Objection Deadline, an attorney for the entity who filed the Motion (a) files a declaration pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746 indicating that no Objection has been filed or served in accordance with these Procedures, (b) if the entity who filed the Motion is not the Debtor, serves the declaration by facsimile upon the counsel to the Debtors, Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP, at (212) 607-7983, Attn: Michelle M. McGreal, at least one day prior to submission thereof to the Court and (c) delivers by U.S. mail, or hand or overnight delivery, or, if preferred by the Court, email, a package to the Court, with a copy to Debtors' counsel, including (i) the declaration described in clause (a) above, (ii) a USB flash drive (or, if by email, an attachment) containing, in Microsoft Word format, a form of order granting the relief requested in the applicable Motion, (iii) if submission is not by email, a printed copy of the form of order and (iv) the ECF docket number of the Motion to which the form of order relates (collectively, the "Presentment Package"). Upon receiving the Presentment Package, the Court may grant the relief requested in the Motion without further submission, hearing or request. If the Court does not grant the relief, (x) the Motion shall be heard at the next Omnibus Hearing that is at least six days from the date the Court receives the Presentment Package and (y) the decision not to grant the relief shall not constitute an extension of the Objection Deadline related thereto, unless otherwise agreed between the party seeking relief and a party seeking to object.

23. If an Objection is filed, then unless otherwise ordered by the Court, any Reply shall be filed with the Court and served in accordance with these Procedures on or before 12:00 p.m. on the date that is two days before the date of the applicable hearing (the “Reply Deadline”).

24. Any joinder or statement of support shall be filed with the Court and served in accordance with these Procedures on or before the Reply Deadline.

25. If a Motion to extend the time for the Debtors to take any action is filed consistent with this Order before the expiration of the period prescribed by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Bankruptcy Rules or the provisions of any order entered by this Court, the time shall automatically be extended until the Court acts on the Motion, without the necessity for the entry of a bridge order.

26. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the Procedures shall not supersede the requirements for notice of the proceedings described in Bankruptcy Rule 2002(a)(1), (a)(4)–a(5) and (a)(7)–(a)(8), Bankruptcy Rule 2002(b), Bankruptcy Rule 2002(d) and Bankruptcy Rule 2002(f).

Motions for Relief from the Automatic Stay

27. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, a motion for relief from the automatic stay (a “Stay Relief Motion”) filed by parties other than the Debtors pursuant to section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code shall be noticed for consideration at an Omnibus Hearing that is at least 21 days after such Motion is filed and served, and the Objection Deadline for such Motion shall be three days before the scheduled hearing.

28. Notwithstanding section 362(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, if a scheduled Motion with respect to a request for relief by a party other than the Debtors under section 362(d) of the Bankruptcy Code is adjourned upon the consent of the Debtors and the moving party to a date that is on or after the 30th day after the moving party’s request for relief was made, the moving party shall be deemed to have consented to the continuation of the automatic stay in effect pending the conclusion of, or as a result of, a final hearing and determination under section 362(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, and shall be deemed to have waived its right to assert the termination of the automatic stay under section 362(e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Form of Court Papers

29. Except as set forth below, a “Notice of Motion” shall be affixed to all Motions and shall include the following: (a) the title of the Motion, (b) the parties upon whom any Objection to the Motion is required to be served, (c) the date and time of the applicable Objection Deadline, (d) the date of the Omnibus Hearing at which the Motion shall be considered by the Court and (e) a statement that the relief requested may be granted without a hearing if no Objection is timely filed and served in accordance with these Procedures. The applicable Objection Deadline and hearing date shall also appear in the upper right corner of the first page of the Notice of Motion. A separate “Notice of Motion” shall not be required where the Motion itself contains the information required to be included in the “Notice of Motion.”

30. Notwithstanding section 342(c) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 2002(n), notices given by the Debtors shall not be required to contain the address and taxpayer identification numbers of the Debtors.

31. Nothing in these Procedures shall prejudice the right of any party to move the Court to request relief under section 107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code or Bankruptcy Rule 9018 to protect any entity with respect to a trade secret or confidential research, development, or commercial information or to protect a person with respect to scandalous or defamatory matter contained in a Court Paper filed in these cases. If the Debtors seek approval of or authorization from the Court to assume, reject, enter into, approve, honor or assign any agreement, including contracts, leases, financing agreements, settlement agreements, consent orders and any other arrangement or instrument of any kind, or if the Debtors are otherwise required to refer to the terms or provisions of any such instrument in a Court Paper, and such instrument contains confidential or proprietary information, the Debtors need not file such instrument with the Court unless requested to do so by the Court or a party in interest, and the Debtors shall be entitled at the time of such request, and before filing such instruments, to seek relief under section 107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code or Bankruptcy Rule 9018 with respect to such instrument.

Telephonic Appearances

32. If a party wishes to participate in a hearing by telephone, such party must request permission from Chambers and notify attorneys for the Debtors at least 48 hours prior to the scheduled hearing. If Chambers permits telephonic participation, the party participating telephonically must arrange such telephonic participation with Court Call, adhering to the Procedures for telephonic participation applicable in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, as well as those required by Chambers. Those participating by phone may not use speakerphones, unless first authorized by the Court. Persons participating by phone (and especially by speakerphone) must put their phones on “mute” except when they need to be heard. Persons so participating are not to put their phones on “hold” under any circumstances.
