Dear Honorable Kathy A. Surratt-States,

In 1969 Peabody Coal Company hired me at the power mine near Montrose, Mo. It was a good paying job with a promise of good health care insurance For the rest of my life, if I had 20 years employment before I retired, I did.

My right foot was crushed in an accident while repairing heavy equipment. This injury resulted in impaired balance, causing several bad falls. As a 80 year old disabled veteran of the Korean War, my concern about losing health insurance is my wife's illness. She has sugar diabetes, is a cancer survivor and has poor eyesight. We need this insurance, Peabody Coal Company promised me. She is all I live for and she needs and deserves health insurance that Peabody Coal Company representatives promised me.

Please don't let them wrong me by not paying for my family's health insurance.

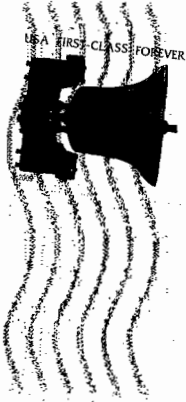

Very Respectively Yours,
Samuel D. Balsiger
