My husband worked for Peabody Coal out of Calhoun Mo. for almost 20 yrs he worked the swing shift all kinds of weather. Peabody closed the mine when he was 59 yrs. Then he went to Uly. and worked at that mine for over a yr. He came home and worked at odd jobs.

He got a small pension and his insurance.

He passed away last year now I get half of his pension which is $224.94 along with my S.S and insurance.

I'm over 80 yrs. old. If the Coal Co. takes every thing from me I can not buy insurance.

The Coal mine made a promise that they would be taking care of when they retired along with there wife.
