RE: Case NO. 1251502
Thomas E. Eagleton U.S. Courthouse
111 South 10th St, 4th Floor
St. Louis, MO. 63102

Dear Judge Kathy,

My name is Frank Clore. I am 82 years of age. My wife of 63 years is 81 years of age. During 24½ yrs of this time was employed by Peabody Coal Co. as a union miner. At age 62 in 1993 I retired and started drawing my pension, as a result of my service time with Peabody. I also received our health care coverage from Peabody, which I believe is for life. Along with the pension I receive Social Security and Medicare. To lose the health care would be devastating to us. I have Insulin dependant diabetes, 3 stents in my heart, C.O.P.D and take Lisinopril, Levodopa, and Metoprol medications. My wife has Nephropathy and Parkinsons disease and is on a walker. I ask you Judge Kathy to rule in the Retirees favor. Please.

Respectfully Yours,
Frank Clore
