Judge K. States

I am writing regarding the Patriot Bankruptcy Case. My husband Chiles Grinstead worked for Peabody Coal for 21 years. He got his retirement from Peabody. In 2010 he died from a stroke. We had no children, so I am the only one left. Without this insurance I would really be in a big mess. Yes, I get Medicare but it only pay for 80%, it does not for alot of medicine or test that I may need. I would not be able to go to Doctor, which I have to every 3 months could not get my Medications. I am taking about 7 different medications. Without this insurance, I would not be able to afford them. With me being disable, this would really hurt me. I am struggling now. I pray everyday, that Peabody would do us like that. Families of our Coal Miners. I hope you can help us with this problem.

Thank You
Amelia G. Grinstead
