"The Honorable Kathy A. Duratt - States,"

Judge Duratt, Peabody Coal Co. shut down the Harewood mining complex in August 1986, at that time I had 37 years service, not being able to find employment elsewhere, I retired with Peabody Coal to get a small pension and medical benefits. I was promised for a life time, I was 56 years old, I am now 82 years old. My medical problems are Heart Attack, High Blood pressure, operation large Cyst, Gall Bladder surgery, Colon polyps (4 times) eye lid surgery, Gastric problem, Arthritis in my hips making it difficult to walk, hearing problems that was job related. I have heart monitoring tests) when advised by my heart doctor. I am on 4 prescribed medicines) provided by my provider daily. My wife is also provided coverage by my provider, she is 79 years old and in bad health. She is required to take 7 daily medicines). My wife had to travel to Cleveland Clinic in Oct. and Dec. for medical care. She is under the care of 5 doctors). When I have a problem with my medical Plan or Description Coverage. I am still using the same telephone Number "Benefit Center - 1-800-633-9005 for many years with Peabody Coal Company, before Patriot Coal Company came into existence. Apparently Peabody Coal Company is still

Managing my hospital coverage,

The loss of our health and retirement would be disastrous for our existence.

We would appreciate your consideration and help you might give us for our problem.

Thank you,
