

To the honorable Kathy A. Severatt-States;

I am Keith Tedrick, from Florissant, MO.
I am 68 years of age, I worked 35 years for Pebony / Patriot Coal Co.

I am now retired, under Medicare & B.C. & B.S.
ins. co.

I spent two years in Viet Nam, with the 3rd Marine Div. I was among the 1000 trapped in a Combat Base called KHE SANH for 77 days.

Upon returning home, I soon contracted Hypertension, the type II variety, I am on diabets 3 days a week, and am in need of a kidney, if I am to continue to live.

If Patriot wins this, the way they want it,
I am dead. Please see things our way,
the retirees and many, many, combat vets
that fought for the United States of America,
One my own status, I beg, implore you to rule in my & our favor, for the sake of our lives.

Thank you,
