Dear Honorable Kathy A. Surratt-States,

My husband John H. Cook, began working for Amherst when he was 18 years old. He worked there for about 30 years. He began the job and picking coal. He would advance to other jobs. He got an opportunity to go to He worked for them for 5 years. He was electrical supervisor for central and southern West Virginia. He missed Amherst so he quit that job and took a job going back in the mines wade the water. He really liked working for Amherst and the others that bought out Amherst, After he was ready to retire he worked an extra one year at Arch or Patriot so I could have medical coverage for my life time. As he was dying he was happy to know I would have medical coverage.

I was so grateful to the UMWA, I Joined the UMWA as an Associate Member. I really like my medical card and I don't know if I could get medical care if I did not have it. I just get Social Security and that is very little. I could not pay for the medical care I need.

Sincerely,

Ella R. Cook

Widow of John H. Cook
