

Hon. Kathy A. Surratt - Statler

U.S. DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MISSOURI

My husband Clyde J. Surratt worked

46 years in the coal field.

When he retired from mining he received a nice pension and one Hospital Insurance.

He died in 1995 and he thought I would be taken care of.

Now at 86 yrs of age ~~that~~ they want to take it all away from me. They must be crazy to think we could get insurance we could afford if we are stripped of everything. My health is not good. I have four Stents in my heart and other issues. I cannot live without Insurance.

Coal miners are a proud bunch of men and they should not be done like this.

Kathy lets pray you have an open mind on this issue.

We the people need your help.

I live pay to pay and so far God has taken care of me and I pray he will help us minor widows and pensioners

Patriot coal and back, Peabody need to think what they are doing to so many lines.

"Lined" has come into these people lines.

I pray everything will go in our favor because we worked for this.

Yours truly
M. Lyle J. Jones
