Dear Judge Surratt-States:

I am a 68 year old miner who worked 27 years for Peabody coal and like the great majority of us involved with this suit never worked a day for Patriot. Our pensions are not the great pensions a lot of companies give, I get $798 a month for 27 years' service. All the mines I worked in were very profitable and helped Peabody become the company it is today.

I never had a choice of being a Patriot retiree. Peabody just unloaded us unto Patriot. I think it would be a great affront to justice to just let Peabody dump us.

PLEASE DON'T LET IT HAPPENED!

Sincerely;
Robert Huwer
