

Wednesday

Hello Your Honor,

This is my 4th letter to you and if you have read them you probably know I'm not very good at it 😊 But I feel compelled to write and pray if I can't help that I won't hurt 😊 I miss my husband Frank (The Love of my Life) but I know how very, very hurt he would be if he were to see what is happening to the miners and the job he loved and was so proud to do.

When he was ill I can't remember how very many times he said to me - "you won't have any worries, you'll have my pension and health care" - never dreaming things would come to what they have now. It seems like the things that are happening now are just unreal.

I know you must be a very special person to have the position you do. I want you to know I have been praying for you as you make your decision - naturally I hope it will be for our side, but if the Lord wills the other HE will be there for me and all who look to him - PTL

Sincerely,
Betty Brown
