Chapter 11

Case No. 12-51502-659

(Jointly Administered)

THIRD INTERIM APPLICATION OF BOWLES RICE LLP FOR ALLOWANCE OF COMPENSATION

TO THE HONORABLE KATHY A. SURRETT-STATES,
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

Bowles Rice LLP f/k/a Bowles Rice McDavid Graff & Love LLP (“Bowles Rice”), special counsel to Patriot Coal Corporation and its subsidiaries that are debtors and debtors in possession in these proceedings (collectively, the “Debtors”), for its third interim application (the “Application”), pursuant to §§ 330(a) and 331 of Title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) and Rule 2016 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), for allowance of compensation for professional services performed by Bowles Rice during the period commencing February 1, 2013, through and including July 31, 2013 (the “Compensation Period”), respectfully represents:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. Debtors retained Bowles Rice as special counsel to continue providing advice and representation in black lung, health and safety, and other litigation, as well as commercial, energy, and real estate matters.
2. As special counsel, it has been necessary for Bowles Rice to expend time, energy, and resources to help the Debtors address the various and complex issues that arise in the operation of the Debtors’ West Virginia facilities.
3. Bowles Rice has tried to be as efficient as possible to minimize cost to the Debtors’ estates.
4. As described in further detail herein, Bowles Rice’s efforts to advise and represent the Debtors during the Compensation Period have benefitted the Debtors. Among other things, Bowles Rice (a) assisted the Debtors through local counsel opinions required by the post-petition financing in these cases, (b) assisted the Debtors with certain ongoing corporate governance matters, (c) assisted the Debtors with disposition of surface properties and coal, oil, and gas interests, (d) represented the Debtors in the bankruptcy case of a former contract miner and reviewed and analyzed a possible settlement in other litigation, and (e) represented the Debtors in black lung benefit and health and safety claims by the Debtors’ employees. Bowles Rice’s fees for professional services are reasonable under applicable standards. For all of these reasons, Bowles Rice requests that the Court grant this application and allow the compensation for professional services and reimbursement for expenses described herein.

BACKGROUND

5. On July 9, 2012 (the “Petition Date”), each Debtor commenced a voluntary case under Chapter 11 the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are authorized to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to §§ 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

6. Debtors retained Bowles Rice with authorization by the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York pursuant to its Order Authorizing the Employment and Retention of Bowles Rice McDavid Graff & Love LLP as Special Counsel for the Debtors Nunc Pro Tunc to the Petition Date [ECF No. 539] (the “Bowles Rice Employment Order”) to render professional services in connection with (collectively the “Authorized Representation”):

7. On July 18, 2012, the Office of the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York (the “U.S. Trustee”) appointed the Creditors’ Committee pursuant to §§ 1102(a) and 1102(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee or examiner has been appointed in the Debtors' Chapter 11 cases.

8. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction to consider and determine this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334 (2012). This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2) (2012). Venue is proper before this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409 (2012).

SUMMARY OF REQUESTED PROFESSIONAL COMPENSATION

9. This Application has been prepared in accordance with (a) Local Rules 2016-1 and 2016-2 and this Court's Procedures Manual (the "Local Guidelines"), (b) the United States Trustee Guidelines for Reviewing Applications for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses Filed Under 11 U.S.C. § 330 adopted on January 30, 1996 (the "UST Guidelines"), and (c) the Order to Establish Procedures for Interim Monthly Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Professionals entered by the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York [ECF No. 262] (the "Interim Compensation Order" and, collectively with the Local Guidelines and the UST Guidelines, the "Guidelines").

10. In accordance with the Interim Compensation Order, Bowles Rice filed monthly fee statements covering the following periods: (a) from February 1, 2013, through February 28, 2013 [ECF No. 4427]; (b) from March 1, 2013, through March 31, 2013 [ECF No. 4072]; (c) from April 1, 2013, through April 30, 2013 [ECF No. 4086]; (d) from May 1, 2013, through May 31, 2013 [ECF No. 4350]; (e) from June 1, 2013, through June 30, 2013 [ECF No. 4427]; and (f) from July 1, 2013, through July 31, 2013 [ECF No. 4574].

11. Other than the fee statements described above, Bowles Rice has not requested previously any compensation from the Court for professional services or reimbursement of expenses for the Compensation Period.

12. By this Application, Bowles Rice seeks allowance in full of interim compensation for professional services rendered to the Debtors during the Compensation Period, in the aggregate amount of $420,836.67, and allowance in full of interim reimbursement of expenses incurred during the Compensation Period, in the aggregate amount of $17,303.87. During the Compensation Period, Bowles Rice attorneys and paraprofessionals expended a total of 3,699.55 hours for which compensation is sought.

13. As of the filing of this Application, Bowles Rice has received payments totaling $219,130.76 for professional services rendered during the Compensation Period, and payments totaling $10,572.66 for reimbursement of expenses incurred during the Compensation Period.

14. As of the filing of this Application, the total amount remaining unpaid for professional services rendered during the Compensation Period is $201,705.91, and the total amount remaining unpaid for reimbursement of expenses incurred during the Compensation Period is $6,730.91.

15. During the Compensation Period, other than pursuant to the Interim Compensation Order, Bowles Rice has received no payment and no promises of payment from any source for services rendered or to be rendered in any capacity whatsoever in connection with the matters covered by this Application. There is no agreement or understanding between Bowles Rice and any other person, other than partners of the firm, for the sharing of compensation to be received for services rendered in these cases.

16. The fees charged by Bowles Rice in these cases are billed in accordance with its agreed-upon billing rates and procedures in effect during the Compensation Period. The rates charged by Bowles Rice for the services rendered in these Chapter 11 cases do not (and will not) exceed the rates Bowles Rice customarily charges for services rendered in comparable matters. Such fees are reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably-skilled practitioners in comparable assignments in a competitive national legal market.

17. Prior to the filing of this Application, Bowles Rice filed with the Court and served on the Debtors, the U.S. Trustee, counsel to the Creditors' Committee, and counsel to the Debtors' post-petition lenders the monthly fee statements identified in Paragraph 10 above, setting forth Bowles Rice's fees for professional services rendered and expenses incurred from February 1, 2013, through July 31, 2013.

18. Pursuant to the UST Guidelines, annexed to the U.S. Trustee summary section preceding this Application is a schedule setting forth all Bowles Rice professionals and paraprofessionals who have performed services in these Chapter 11 cases during the Compensation Period, the capacities in which each such individual is employed by Bowles Rice, the department in which each individual practices, the hourly billing rate charged by Bowles Rice for services performed by such individual for the Debtors, the year in which each professional was first licensed to practice law, and the aggregate number of hours expended in this matter and fees billed therefor.

19. Pursuant to the UST Guidelines, annexed hereto as Exhibit A is a summary of the number of hours and amounts billed by Bowles Rice during the Compensation Period, organized by project categories.

20. Bowles Rice maintains computerized records of the time spent by all Bowles Rice attorneys and paraprofessionals in connection with the Debtors' Chapter 11 cases.

21. To the extent that time or disbursement charges for services rendered or expenses incurred relate to the Compensation Period, but were not processed prior to the preparation of this Application, Bowles Rice reserves the right to request compensation for such services and reimbursement of such expenses in a future application.

SUMMARY OF SERVICES

22. During the Compensation Period, Bowles Rice was required to render professional services to assist the Debtors in dealing with various issues typically faced by coal operators. Recitation of each and every item of professional services performed by Bowles Rice during the Compensation Period would be extremely burdensome. Hence, the following summary highlights the major areas to which Bowles Rice devoted time and attention during the Compensation Period. This summary is organized in accordance with Bowles Rice's internal system of project categories. Exhibit A provides a breakdown of the time devoted and fees allocable to each project category.

THE REQUESTED COMPENSATION SHOULD BE ALLOWED

23. Section 331 of the Bankruptcy Code provides for compensation of professionals and incorporates the substantive standards of § 330 to govern the Court's award of such compensation. 11 U.S.C. § 331 (2012). Section 330 provides that a court may award a professional employed under § 327 of the Bankruptcy Code "reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered . . . and reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses.” Id.

§ 330(a)(1). Section 330 also sets forth the criteria for the award of such compensation and reimbursement:

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded . . . , the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including –

- (A) the time spent on such services;
- (B) the rates charged for such services;
- (C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;
- (D) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;
- (E) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and
- (F) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

Id. § 330(a)(3).

24. In the instant case, Bowles Rice respectfully submits that the services for which it seeks compensation in this Application were necessary for and beneficial to the Debtors’ estates and their rehabilitation and reorganization effort. Such services were in the best interests of the Debtors’ estates and creditors. Bowles Rice further submits that the compensation requested herein is reasonable in light of the nature, extent, and value of such services to the Debtors, their estates, and all parties in interest.

25. Whenever possible, Bowles Rice sought to minimize the costs of its services to the Debtors by utilizing talented junior attorneys and paraprofessionals to handle more routine aspects of case administration. A small group of the same Bowles Rice attorneys was utilized for the vast majority of the work in these cases to minimize the costs of intra-Bowles Rice communication and education about the Debtors' circumstances.

26. The Local Guidelines require that all professional fee applications analyze the twelve factors for allowance of compensation set forth in Johnson v. Georgia Highway Express, 388 F.2d 714 (5th Cir. 1974) (the "Johnson Factors"). Bowles Rice submits that its Application satisfies all of the Johnson Factors, as described below:

(a) Time and labor required. Bowles Rice has described in detail the time spent and has included a complete summary of the tasks performed, in addition to providing detailed time entries for each monthly fee statement.

(b) Novelty and difficulty of questions. Bowles Rice's services on behalf of the Debtors involve many issues peculiar to the Debtors' operations and the coal industry in general. By virtue of its experience with the Debtors and the coal industry, Bowles Rice is well-suited to represent the Debtors in these matters.

(c) Skill required to perform legal services. While this Court is certainly the best judge of the skill demonstrated by Bowles Rice lawyers in this engagement, Bowles Rice believes that its lawyers have demonstrated consistently the skill levels necessary for the vigorous representation of the Debtors' interests in the matters they handled.

(d) Preclusion of employment due to acceptance. Acceptance of this case did not preclude Bowles Rice from other employment; however, the professionals involved in this case devoted significant portions of their time to the Debtors' affairs and were, to that extent, unable to address other matters.

(e) The customary fees. The rates charged by Bowles Rice in this matter are substantially lower than rates it charges for similar clients on similar matters.

(f) Whether the fee is fixed or contingent. The fees requested in this Application are based on neither a fixed nor contingent fee basis; the fees are requested on an hourly basis.

(g) Time limitations imposed by client or circumstances. This case poses the normal time pressures inherent in any Chapter 11 case.

(h) The amount involved and the results obtained. Bowles Rice worked diligently to advocate for its client and obtained results that were reasonable in the matters Bowles Rice handled.

(i) The experience, reputation, and ability of the attorneys. Bowles Rice is a full-service law firm well known in the Charleston, West Virginia, and regional legal markets. The professionals representing the Debtors in this engagement are highly skilled and experienced in the matters for which they are employed.

(j) The undesirability of the case. These are not undesirable cases. Bowles Rice is privileged to have the opportunity to represent the Debtors.

(k) The nature and length of the professional relationship with the client. Bowles Rice has represented the Debtors for several years on matters similar to the ones for which it has been engaged in these cases.

27. In sum, approval of the compensation for professional services sought herein is warranted.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE Bowles Rice respectfully requests: (i) an allowance of compensation for professional services rendered and reimbursement for expenses incurred during the Compensation Period in the aggregate amount of $438,140.54; (ii) authorization for the Debtors to pay to Bowles Rice that portion of the compensation and reimbursement amounts not yet paid; (iii) that the allowance of such compensation for professional services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred be without prejudice to Bowles Rice's right to seek additional compensation for services performed and expenses incurred during the Compensation Period that were not processed at the time of this Application; and (iv) such other and further relief as is just.
